March 29th , 2012
Gresco Georgia 11th Annual Expo
Headquarters, Forsyth

A grayscale photograph of a busy trade show floor. In the foreground, several people are walking or standing near a booth. In the background, there are rows of booths with various displays and equipment. The overall atmosphere is one of a large-scale professional event.

Representatives from over 100 vendors and manufacturers will be on hand to discuss new and innovative products relating to the electric utility industry.

Agenda and registration information will go out February 13th. You may also register on-line after February 13th at www.gresco.com.

We look forward to seeing at the Expo!
